International Student Dual-Degree Course Enrollment Procedure

September 2010

- Department: The International College and the Chinese Language Education Center 1.
- 2. Purpose: To assist international students with dual-degree course enrollment.
- 3. Ordinance basis: Follow Asia University course-enrollment regulations and Asia University course-opening procedure.
- 4. Timing: three weeks before the semester ends.
- Explanation: This procedure applies to Asia University's international students who have completed 5. registration process.
- Work flow: 6.

students and course enrollment instructions of dual-degree students to each college and department.

School begins.

Following the course enrollment regulations international dual-degree students start to enroll in courses.

- dual-degree students should take general courses intended for international students. 10 credit hours are required before their graduation.
- 2. The 10 credits should contain Chinese and English courses offered by the International College.